Read the passage carefully and answer the questions.

Rita seldom woke up on time so she was often late for school. When her mother woke her up in the mornings, she would turn over and go back to sleep. She would get up from the bed only when her father shook her. He always tried to rush her to school but she would still be late in the end.

Last Wednesday, Rita had to go for a learning journey to the zoo. That morning, she woke up late as always. She packed her bag hurriedly and picked up her lunch box as she walked out of the door.

When Rita reached school, her classmates and teacher were waiting for her angrily at the bus bay. She was late once again. She boarded the school bus, feeling ashamed. No one wanted to sit with her in the bus.

At the zoo, Rita realised that she had left her purse at home because she had packed her bag in a hurry. She could not buy any gift from the zoo to take home. Rita was miserable that day and she promised to wake up early in future.

Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 31 to 36.

Mr Bock sells fish in the market near his home.

During the wee hours of the morning, he goes to Jurong
Fishery Port to select the freshest fish for his customers.

He chooses the more common fishes such as sea bass, red snapper and salmon to sell at his stall. Sometimes, he sells crabs and prawns too!

Mr Bock will be at the market by six o'clock to open his stall. As his fishes are fresh and cheap, many housewives love to buy fish from him. Usually, the salmon is the first to be sold out. By eleven o'clock, Mr Bock closes 10 his stall and takes the biggest fish home for Mrs Bock to cook.

One day, Mrs Bock was preparing dinner for the family. She took out the fish that her husband had brought home that morning. As she was washing the fish, she noticed something shiny in its mouth. She opened the mouth and pulled out a diamond ring. Mrs Bock smiled as she looked at the precious ring. However, since it did not belong to her, she decided to sell the ring and donate the money to charity. Mrs Bock was very happy after that.

Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 31 to 36.

Jacky decided to get some magnets after reading a book about them. For two weeks, he skipped recess and went without food.

He had saved all his pocket money to buy a box of magnets.

Before Jacky could play with them, his mother found out what he had done. She was angry and took the box of magnets from him. Then she kept them in a drawer in the kitchen. Jacky cried loudly.

At that moment, Grandma walked into the kitchen with her sewing kit. Jacky ran into her and the kit dropped onto the floor. Out came her scissors, threads and a box of pins. Pins were everywhere 10 on the floor!

Jacky's eyes brightened when he saw the pins. He took out a magnet from the drawer quickly. Then, he glided it across the floor.

Almost like magic, all the pins were attracted to the magnet. Soon, Jacky was able to put all the pins back into the box.

When Jacky's mother saw how useful the magnets were, she took out the rest of the magnets and said to Jacky, "Thank you for helping Grandma. Here are your magnets!"

enjoying his meal, he felt something stuck in his throat. It was a small bone. No matter how hard he tried, he could not swallow it. He soon felt a terrible pain in his throat.
Wolf ran round the woods to look for help. He met	5
Monkey, Deer and Squirrel. "I will give you anything if you can relieve me of my pain," he pleaded. However, none of them could.
Just then, Crane came along. He took pity on him and agreed to help. He told Wolf to lie on his side and open his 1	0 jaws as wide as he could. Crane then put his long neck down Wolf's throat and took out the bone with his strong beak.
"Will you kindly give me the reward you promised?"
asked Crane.
Wolf grinned slyly. He showed his teeth and said, "Be 19	5

Day:	Date:
Read the passage carefully.

Ted was awakened by the loud barking. He had fallen asleep while reading his book. He knew that his dog, Ginger, would be sitting outside his bedroom door, waiting patiently for him to wake up and feed her. Ginger's bark seemed different from the usual. It was loud and aggressive.

Ted opened his bedroom door, but Ginger was not sitting there. The barking was deafening and it appeared to be coming from the laundry room downstairs.

Ted entered the laundry room and was stunned at what he saw! A big fat python was sitting on top of the washing machine and hissing angrily. Ginger stood some distance away and was barking ferociously at the unwelcome visitor. The window above the washing machine was wide open. He had forgotten to shut it the night before!

Ginger seemed ready to pounce on the python. Ted grabbed hold of his angry dog and slammed the laundry room door shut. At lightning speed, he dashed upstairs in search of his mobile phone.

Day:	Date:
Read the passage carefully.

It was the June holidays. William had invited Hanfei to stay at his house for a few days. They had agreed to play computer games together. William lived in a condominium and there was a pool for residents. When Hanfei reached William's house in the morning, William's parents were out shopping. William suggested going for a swim as it was not too crowded on weekdays.

There were only a few people at the pool. Hanfei and William dived into the water and swam for an hour. Just as they were about to get out of the water, a girl dived in. While they were walking along the poolside, they heard a scream. They turned and saw the girl struggling in the water. There was no one else around except them. Hanfei quickly dived in and swam towards her. He reached out for her and held her tightly in his arms. Then he swam to the edge of the pool with her. William helped them out of the pool.

Soon after, a man joined them. He introduced himself as the girl's father. They lived in the same condominium as William. He was grateful to Hanfei and William for saving his daughter's life. He invited them for dinner at his house that night. Hanfei and William were very proud of their act.

Read the passage carefully.

On a warm summer day, Ellie, the elephant, strolled past the monkeys, the lions and the bears. The zoo was a lively place. All the animals were feeling excited, except Lucy, the giraffe. "The animals are so noisy! I can't sleep!" Lucy cried.

Ellie wanted to help her friend, Lucy. Ellie asked the other animals to keep quiet but it did not work. Just then, Ellie heard a soft, sweet melody. The bluebird was singing a lullaby to her babies. That gave Ellie a wonderful ideal

Ellie asked the animals to sing a song. The monkeys screamed, the lions roared and the bears just growled. After some thought, she decided to seek help from the wise gorilla. With the gorilla's help, Ellie arranged the animal sounds into sections, just like a band.

When it was Lucy's bedtime, the animals gathered around to sing a lullaby to her. Ellie conducted the animal band. Beautiful sounds spread through the zoo. As Lucy listened to the music, she fell asleep and snored softly.

Part 3 : Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully.

Ruby looked out of the window and saw something white moving near the bush. She took her mother's hairbrush from the bathroom and ran out of the house. There, in her garden, she found a white kitten, without a collar. She knew it did not belong to anyone.

Ruby sat down near the bush and brushed the kitten's fur. Then, she went into the house. She found a piece of bread and gave it to the kitten. The kitten gabbled up the food quickly.

Looking at the dark sky, Ruby knew that a heavy rain was about to start. She went in and asked her mother if the kitten could come in. Her mother shook her head and said, "We already have a cat in the house."

Just then, it started to rain. Ruby quickly ran out of the house. She looked near the bush but could not find the white kitten. Ruby sat at the door of her house and cried softly. "Where did it go?" she wondered to herself.

Suddenly, Ruby heard a soft mewing sound at the side of her house. She turned towards the sound. She smiled and quickly wiped her tears. She was glad that she had finally found what she was looking for. It was curled on the genden chair:

Section F: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow. Your answers must be based on the given text.

There was a grocery shop in town. Many mice loved it as they could find food easily there. They are all the food and spoiled all the bags in the shop.

The shopkeeper got worried and thought of a solution, "I will buy a cat and let it stay in the shop." The cat had a good time hunting and killing the mice in the shop.

The mice could not move as freely now and were afraid of the cat. They held a meeting and one of them said, "We must get rid of that cat!"

The mice sat down and thought long and hard. They realised that the problem was the cat moved quietly. Suddenly, a smart mouse stood up and said, "Let's tie a bell around its neck. That way, we can hear it when it is coming."

"Yes, that is a brilliant idea!" said the mice, "now that we have a solution, who will tie the bell?" All the mice stood silent and still.

Read the following passage. Answer questions 11 to 13.

It was a scorching hot day. After crawling for some time, an ant came to a pond. Feeling thirsty, the ant climbed onto a pebble to reach the water. Unluckily, it slipped and fell into the pond.

"Help! Help!" cried the ant.

Seeing that the ant was in trouble, a dove quickly plucked a leaf from a tree. It then dropped the leaf into the pond near the struggling ant. The ant moved towards the leaf and climbed onto it. Soon, the leaf drifted to dry ground and the ant jumped out. It was safe at last.

The ant was grateful. It was crawling towards the dove when it spotted a hunter with a net. He was about to throw his net over the dove. Sensing that the dove was in danger, the ant quickly bit the hunter. The hunter yelled in pain and dropped his net. The dove flew away to safety.

Section C - Comprehension Open-Ended (5m)

Read the following passage. Answer questions 13 to 15.

In a jungle, there lived three friends, Lion, Zebra and Sheep. Lion had a golden mane and Zebra had fantastic stripes. They did not think highly of Sheep because she was very quiet.

One day, the three friends found a place to play. "This cave is even better than Lion's den!" exclaimed Zebra. Unfortunately, Bear was sleeping in it. He woke up and stomped his feet. Roaring fiercely, he chased the three animals out of the cave.

Puzzled by Bear's anger, Zebra scratched her furry chin. Then, she said, "If I did not have stripes or a mane like Lion's, I would be bad-tempered tool Let's cheer Bear up so we can play in his cave!" Both Zebra and Lion decided to give him some stripes and a golden mane. No one asked Sheep what she thought. With a tin of mud and some gold grass, Zebra and Lion entered the cave. Minutes later, they ran out with Bear running angrily after them.

Standing outside the cave was Sheep. Bear saw her and yelled at her, "All I really want is a quiet place to sleep!" He charged back into the cave.

Shaving off some of her wool, Sheep stuffed it into a cotton bag until the bag was full. She quivered as she tip-toed into the cave. "Excuse me, Bear. Would you like this to be placed under your head?" Sheep asked.

Thanks to Sheep, Bear fell into a deep sleep with his new pillow. In the end, the three friends played happily in Bear's cave.

Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer the questions carefully.

It was one week before the Show-and-Tell presentation. Ramli's presentation script was ready but he had not been practising. Spending more time on his handheld game console, Ramli did not prepare well for his presentation. Ramli's mother, Mrs Siti, was worried.

"Ramli, it's time to stop playing and start practising!" Mrs Siti scolded Ramli sternly. Walking over to Ramli, she confiscated his handheld game console. Mrs Siti ignored Ramli's protests and began practising with him.

After days of practice with his mother, Ramli became more confident about presenting in front of his classmates. By then, Ramli had memorised the script. He had also recited his speech numerous times in front of his mother. At times, Mrs Siti would give him gentle reminders to keep his eyes on the audience. Ramli was finally ready for the big day.

Feeling grateful, Ramli thanked his mother and gave her a hug. If not for his mother, he would not be ready for the Show-and-Tell presentation. Ramli was elated when he received an excellent grade from his teacher.

Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer questions 31 to 36.

Ken was about to reach his school when it started to rain heavily. He ran quickly into the school to seek shelter. As he dashed into his classroom, he slipped and fell.

"Ouch!" Ken cried in pain. His ankle was injured. His friends crowded around him and helped him up. They took him to the sick bay to have his wound treated. While resting alone in the sick bay, Ken thought about the soccer match that he was going to miss at recess. Ken was upset. He had promised his friends that he would join them in the game.

Ring! It was time for recess. The rain had stopped. Thomas came to the sick bay and exclaimed, "Ken! Look at what I have found in the school garden!" Thomas held up a jar with a butterfly in it. He wanted to cheer Ken up. Thomas knew that Ken was upset because he could not play soccer with them. Ken was delighted to see the butterfly.

Just then, there was a rainbow outside the window. "What a beautiful butterfly! Its wings are as colourful as the rainbow!"

Ken said as he smiled. Thomas was glad to see a smile on his friend's face.

Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Joe hardly slept last night. He had tried to sleep early after taking some medicine but the pain did not go off. He could not bear the pain anymore. Although he feared the idea of visiting the dentist, he knew that Dr Goh was the only person who could help him. He made his way to the dental clinic which was quite far away.

When Joe reached the dental clinic, he saw many patients waiting patiently for their turn. He waited anxiously after getting a queue number. Time seemed to pass slowly and his fear began to grow. He was ashamed of himself for eating too many sweets which had caused the toothache.

When it was Joe's turn, he took a deep breath before going into the dentist's room. He was greeted by a friendly Dr Goh who put him at ease in no time. He examined his teeth and said that one tooth needed to be extracted. It was the one which was causing Joe much pain. Dr Goh applied some medication on the gum. Joe closed his eyes tightly as Dr Goh extracted the tooth. To his surprise, there was no pain.

Dr Goh praised Joe for being brave and reminded him to brush his teeth after every meal. When Joe walked out of the clinic, he had one tooth less but he was a happier person.

Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Mr Tan drives the taxi 12 hours every day. One day, Mr Tan drove to the school where his wife was working as a teacher. It was a long and tiring day of work and he was in a bad mood.

"The world is full of dishonest people!" he grumbled angrily. Concerned, his wife asked him what had happened. Mr Tan told her that he had received a fake ten-dollar note from one passenger earlier that day. The passenger had alighted at a crowded taxi stand of a shopping mall and walked off before Mr Tan could notice that the note was fake.

Mrs Tan then asked him to show her the note. "Oh, I just got rid of it! I used it when I bought noodles from the hawker at the coffee shop. He was too busy with his customers to notice it!" Mr Tan replied.

His wife frowned when she heard that and scolded him. "That was dishonest of you too!" she remarked.

Mr Tan thought for a moment and hung his head in shame. He realised that he was in the wrong. He should have gone to the police station to make a report instead of passing on the fake note to the hawker.

Section G: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

A maid named Maya was working in a rich man's home. One day, someone knocked on the door. Maya opened the door and saw an old monk who looked dirty and tired. He asked for some food as he was hungry. Maya gave him some buns. The old monk thanked Maya for her kindness and left.

The rich man's daughter, Juni saw what she had done. "How dare you give our food to a stranger?" she reprimanded Maya loudly. She ordered Maya to take the buns back from the monk immediately. Maya went to look for the monk reluctantly.

The old monk saw Maya crying. He gave Maya a handkerchief. He told her that it had the power to show the true colours of a person who used it. A kind person would look pretty while a person with an evil heart would look ugly.

Maya used her handkerchief to wipe her face daily. Everyone noticed that Maya was looking prettier every day. Juni saw Maya using the handkerchief and grabbed it. Juni wiped her face with it. When she looked into the mirror, she screamed in horror and fainted at the sight of her ugly face!

Section I: Comprehension Multiple-Choice and Open-Ended Questions (5 x 2 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 40 to 44.

An unkind potter wanted to get his neighbour, the washerwoman, into trouble.

One day, the potter went to tell the king that the washerwoman could wash his grey elephants as white as snow. That afternoon, the washerwoman was called to the palace by the king. Surprisingly, she 5 accepted the job. The next day, she took a long piece of string to find out how long the elephant was. With the help of the soldiers, she went to the first elephant and placed the string from its trunk to its back. She repeated the steps with the second elephant.

"I need two things before I can get to work," the washerwoman said. 10 "What do you need?" the king asked.

"I must have two pots to soak each of your elephants. I do not have pots that are gigantic and strong enough to hold the elephants overnight," the washerwoman answered.

The king ordered the potter to make two pots that were the largest 15 and strongest. The potter gasped and his mouth fell open in shock.

Quickly, the potter hurried home. Then he packed his bags and left the village before the king could send soldiers asking for the pots.

Section 6 - Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

A baker was on his way to the market to buy some flour when he found a package on the ground. To his surprise, it contained a stack of money. He went home quickly and showed his mother the money. She told him, "You should return it."

"But we can buy many things with this!" the son said. "Anyway, I don't know who to return the money to. I found it on the road."

"Return it!" his mother said fiercely. "Go back to where you found it. The owner will turn up."

His mother was right. A money changer was looking for his money. The baker returned the package with all the money to him. A passer-by asked the money changer to reward the baker. However, the money changer refused and said, "I lost $300. There is only $100 here!"

The men started fighting. A policeman saw them and took them to a judge. The judge said to the money changer, "You insist that you have lost $300. Then it is clear that this money found is not yours. You have lost your money somewhere else." The judge passed the money to the policeman and thanked the baker for his honest act.

Read the passage.

During holidays, I would spend my time with Uncle Pete. We would usually go camping while Hope, my sister, would stay at home. However, this time, Hope wanted to follow.

I said, "Camping is hard. Can you do everything on your own?"

"I can. Please let me go with you, Sophia," Hope pleaded.

I frowned but Uncle Pete agreed.

Uncle Pete drove us to the forest. We took our backpacks and hiked towards a lake. Five minutes later, Hope was so tired that we had to stop.

Uncle Pete and I pitched our tent while she watched us.

Then, Uncle Pete said, "Let's go fishing. Put some worms on the hook."

"That's gross. I will not do it," said Hope.

Uncle Pete helped Hope put the worm on the hook. While fishing, she felt a tug. I helped her pull the fish out of the water.

That night, Uncle Pete cooked the fish and it tasted great.

I smiled and said to Hope, "I am glad you came. You caught our dinner."

Read the passage.

Last month, Marilyn saw the musical, Alice in Wonderland, at the theatre. It was a wonderful performance.

Mr Randall, the stage manager, invited her to meet Mrs Brown who performed as the character, Queen of Hearts. Marilyn was thrilled. At that moment, she wanted to be an actress.

One day, Mr Randall invited Marilyn to try out for a role in a new play. He asked Marilyn to read a few lines from the play. After reading, the director smiled and said, "You will play the role of the daughter."

Marilyn was delighted.

Every day, Marilyn practised her lines.

Finally, it was the night of the performance. Marilyn saw the crowd and her hands felt cold. Then, she felt a pat on her shoulder. It was Mrs Brown. Mrs Brown knew how she felt. She told her a way to overcome her fear.

"Try pretending that no one is here. Think of me when you say your lines. I know you will do well," Mrs Brown said.

It was time for Marilyn to say her lines. She walked to the centre of the stage and spoke. That night, her performance was perfect and she enjoyed playing her role.

Section F: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow. Your answers must be based on the given text.

Once, there was a farmer who had four sons. One day, the farmer became very sick. He was worried about his sons' future as they were lazy and did not like to work. He decided to teach them a lesson before he died. He told his four sons about the treasure that was hidden in the farmland.

After the farmer's death, the four brothers dug up the farmland every day. "Where is the treasure?" one of the brothers asked. "This is just an empty land!" complained another brother.

A passerby heard them. When he saw the whole farmland, he suggested to the brothers, "Young men, since you have dug up the farm, why don't you grow some seeds in the ground?"

The farmer's sans disliked the idea but they felt that there was no harm doing it. So, they planted some seeds. Before long, the seeds grew into healthy crops. The four brothers sold the crops in the market and received a good sum of money in return.

With this, the four brothers realised what their father was trying to teach them. They cheered, "So, this is the treasure Father was talking about." From then on, they worked hard for their future.

Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Adam tossed and turned in his bed. No matter how hard he tried, he still could not solve the riddle David had told him after dinner. "Why can't David just tell me the answer?" Adam wondered as he stared at the big, bright moon outside his window.

Adam was about to fall asleep when he heard loud banging sounds. He looked around his room to find out where the sounds were coming from. The toilet door moved as something banged on it from the inside. "Who's there?" Adam asked nervously.

The toilet door continued to shake. Adam jumped out of bed. He ran into David's room and shook David awake.

"There's something in my toilet!" Adam shouted.

Unwillingly, David followed his younger brother into his bedroom. David switched on the light and walked towards the toilet. He opened the toilet door and Apple, their cat, scurried out.

Read the passage carefully and answer Q31 to 40.

It was an ordinary Monday afternoon. I lived on the third floor and enjoyed walking up the stairs. It was quicker than waiting for the lift. On the second floor, I noticed a man climbing through a window into a flat. Shocked, I kept walking.

Once I reached my home, I dashed to the telephone. My 5 heart pounded madly as I told the police what I had seen.

Soon, two policemen arrived at my block. I walked excitedly to the second floor. To my surprise, the policemen were chatting with the 'burglar'. They were smiling. I found out that the man was the owner of the flat. He had lost his keys earlier 10 that day. I felt embarrassed and apologised to him.

"It's okay. Thank you for being a good neighbour. It could have been a real burglar," he said with a kind smile.

Section F: Comprehension (10 marks)
Read the passage below carefully and answer the questions

Alice was using her paintbrush to put the finishing touches on her painting. She stepped back and admired her work, "Wow, my painting looks great!"

She placed her unused paint and paintbrush down on the table and decided to have a good rest. Alice went to the kitchen to make a cup of tea and a sandwich. Little did she know, a little mouse was hungry and looking for food.

The mouse scampered out of its hole when it smelled the nice aroma of Alice's tea and sandwich. It climbed up the table and nibbled on her sandwich. Suddenly, Alice saw the mouse. She let out a scream and chased the mouse out of the kitchen.

The mouse was too quick for Alice. It ran under the painting and back into its hole. Alice lost her balance and tripped over the table, causing all of the unused paint to spill onto her completed painting.

"Oh no, my painting is ruined!" exclaimed Alice. After all the commotion, she cleaned up the mess and made herself another sandwich and tea.

Section F: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 31 to 37.

Tom asked his mother if he could ride his bicycle to the park.

She allowed him to but he had to wear his helmet while riding.

When Tom got to the park, he was surprised to see that it was crowded. He thought there was a carnival. He spotted many of his teachers and friends there. Everyone was holding a garbage bag.

Tom asked his friend, Mina, what was happening and she replied, "Everyone is here to clean the park." Then she asked him if he would like to help. Tom nodded his head and said, "This is going to be fun!"

Tom and his friends picked up food wrappers, empty drink cans and even unfinished food! In one hour, their garbage bags were filled with a lot of rubbish. They were so busy that they did not have time to horse around.

When everything was done, the teachers loaded the garbage bags onto a truck. Everyone was pleased. The park looked clean and green again. Then, Tom and his friends helped to put up signs around the park to remind everyone to throw rubbish into the bins and to keep the park clean.

Soon, it was time for lunch. To thank everyone for their hard work, the teachers bought pizza and drinks. Tom was glad that he was there to help.

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

A black crow lived in the forest and he was a happy bird. However, he became sad after he saw a swan singing sweetly by a pond.

"You are so beautiful and white. I have only black feathers. You must be the happiest bird in the world. I wish to be you," he told the swan.

"Actually," the swan replied, "I felt that I was the happiest bird around until I saw a parrot. The parrot has red and green feathers! So now I think the parrot is the happiest bird in the world." The crow went to look for the parrot.

The parrot explained, "I lived a very happy life until I saw a peacock. I only have red and green feathers but the peacock has feathers of many colours."

The crow then visited a peacock in the zoo and saw people admiring the peacock in its enclosure. After the people had left, the crow approached the peacock.

"Dear Peacock," the crow said, "you are so beautiful. Thousands of people come to see you daily. When people see me, they will try to chase me away immediately. I think you must be the happiest bird on the planet."

The peacock sighed deeply and replied, "Because of my beauty, I am trapped in this zoo. I wish to be a crow instead because that is the only bird which is not kept in a cage. I want to be free and roam everywhere."

The crow realised his foolishness. He realised that he will only be truly happy when he is contented with what he has.

Read the following passage carefully. Your answers must be based on the passage.

"Mummy! He keeps taking away the toys!" Benny screamed as he threw a teddy bear at his brother.

"You took them first!" Danny yelled and kicked the stuffed toy away.

"Share, boys!" Mrs Teo shouted from the kitchen and stopped what she was doing. "The dinner has to wait now," she complained. Quickly, she went to the living room.

Seeing the two boys quarrelling, Mrs Teo hugged them.

"You should always love each other and share your things," she scolded. "Besides, Emma is sleeping in the bedroom. You don't want to wake her up, do you?"

The brothers apologised to each other unwillingly and promised to share.

Just then, a baby's cry was heard.

"Your sister's hungry. Let's feed her," suggested Mrs Teo. The boys' eyes lit up. They nodded and followed her into the bedroom.
